Confirming receipt. Your email of July 20 with the demand and its attachment is in the file, received and opened this morning, July 22; the PDF opens at 81 pages and the index runs A through J, so I show it complete.

I have logged the demand as received 07/22/2026 and diaried it for evaluation. I will need to review the imaging and the treatment records before I can respond to the number. I may come back to you about the time frame.
