KEYSTONE LIMITED RELEASE — AS APPROVED

Draft Release of All Claims (08/14/2026) → amendments approved by Atty. Elijah Thorne 08/17/2026 → Limited Release issued by Keystone 08/19/2026

What changed from Keystone's draft, and who decided it

Clause of the 08/14 draft	Call	As approved and issued 08/19/2026
Parties released, with the catch-all "all other … insurers"	Amended	Robert Smith and Keystone Mutual Insurance only; "and no other person, firm, corporation or insurer"
Claims released: bodily injury, property damage and loss of use	Amended	The bodily injury claim only; the Civic's claim (KM-26-440871-PD) reserved
No reservation of the UM/UIM claims	Added	§1: Harbor Point (HP-26-7741) and Cardinal State (CS-26-20355) claims expressly reserved
§3 Confidentiality	Struck	Not a term of the 07/20/2026 demand; would have barred proof of exhaustion to the UM carriers
§4 Liens: indemnify, defend and hold harmless, with attorney's fees	Amended	§4: the liens on the file paid from the firm's trust account; hold harmless limited to the settlement proceeds; no duty to defend, no fees
No payment date	Added	§6: payment within 14 days of Keystone's receipt of the executed release and the firm's Form W-9
§2 Unknown injuries · §5 Medicare · §6 governing law	Atty. Thorne's decision	§3 kept as drafted; §5 kept (Medicare status verified: not a beneficiary); §7 governed by the laws of the State of Riverton
Non-admission · consideration $10,000.00 · signature and notary block	Kept	Unchanged; notarized wet-ink original required by Keystone

Keystone's payment condition (its letter of 08/14/2026): each UM carrier's written consent to settle and waiver of subrogation against Robert Smith, sent with the executed release. Harbor Point and Cardinal State were asked on 08/13/2026; Bluewater Auto is not a UM layer (UM rejected in writing 03/14/2024). Nothing goes to John Doe for signature until both consents are in writing and Atty. Thorne has gone through the release with him.

RECEIVED · LSH LAW GROUP · AUG 19 2026

Dear Mr. Thorne: We have your redline of August 17, 2026. Keystone accepts the changes. Enclosed is our Limited Release, Form KM-REL-100-L, which replaces the release sent on August 14. Please have Mr. Doe sign it before a notary and return the original, together with the written consents and subrogation waivers of Harbor Point Insurance and Cardinal State Mutual and your firm's Form W-9. Payment will issue within 14 days of our receipt of those documents. Sincerely, Dana Whitfield — Dana Whitfield, Bodily Injury Claims Adjuster

LIMITED RELEASE

Bodily injury claim only · Claimant John Doe · Insured Robert Smith · Policy KMI-PA-7731045 · Date of accident 02/06/2026

The undersigned, JOHN DOE, for the sole consideration of TEN THOUSAND AND 00/100 DOLLARS ($10,000.00), releases and discharges ROBERT SMITH and KEYSTONE MUTUAL INSURANCE, and their agents, employees, heirs, successors and assigns, and no other person, firm, corporation or insurer, from the undersigned's claim for bodily injury arising from the accident of the 6th day of February, 2026, at Maple Hollow Road and Birch Avenue, Riverton.

1. Claims reserved. Nothing in this release releases, waives or impairs (a) the undersigned's uninsured/underinsured motorists claims against Harbor Point Insurance (policy HPA-4402917, claim HP-26-7741) and Cardinal State Mutual (policy CSM-AU-5580213, claim CS-26-20355), or any other first-party benefit; or (b) any claim for property damage or loss of use arising from the accident, including Margaret Doe's claim on the 2019 Honda Civic (Keystone claim KM-26-440871-PD).

2. No admission of liability. This settlement compromises a disputed claim; the payment is not an admission of liability by the released parties.

3. Unknown injuries. The undersigned understands that the injuries sustained may be permanent and progressive and that this release of the bodily injury claim is final.

4. Liens. The liens asserted on the claim (Peach State Health Plan; Riverton Spine & Rehab) will be resolved and paid from the settlement proceeds through the trust account of the undersigned's counsel. The undersigned will hold the released parties harmless from those liens to the extent of the settlement proceeds. No duty to defend and no attorney's fees are undertaken.

5. Medicare. The undersigned represents that he is not a Medicare beneficiary and that Medicare has made no conditional payment for the injuries released.

6. Payment. Keystone will issue payment within 14 days of its receipt of this executed release and counsel's Form W-9, payable to John Doe and LSH Law Group.

7. Entire agreement; governing law. This release is the entire agreement on the bodily injury claim and is governed by the laws of the State of Riverton.
