1. No admission of liability. It is understood and agreed that this settlement is the compromise of a doubtful and disputed claim, and that the payment made is not to be construed as an admission of liability on the part of the persons, firms and corporations hereby released, by whom liability is expressly denied.

2. Unknown injuries. The undersigned understands that the injuries sustained may be permanent and progressive and that recovery therefrom is uncertain and indefinite, and in making this release relies wholly upon his own judgment, belief and knowledge of the nature, extent and duration of those injuries. No representation about the nature and extent of the injuries or the liability for them has been made by any released party.

3. Confidentiality. The undersigned and his attorneys agree that the terms of this settlement, including its amount, are confidential and will not be disclosed to any person except as required by law, to the undersigned's tax and financial advisers, or to lienholders to the extent necessary to satisfy their claims.
