Re:	Property damage — liability decision
Claim number:	KM-26-440871-PD
Our insured:	Robert Smith · Policy KMI-PA-7731045
Owner / claimant:	John Doe · 2019 Honda Civic LX
Date of loss:	02/06/2026

Dear Atty. Thone:

We have completed our investigation of the 02/06/2026 collision at Maple Hollow Rd and Birch Ave. Keystone Mutual accepts liability for the property damage to your client's 2019 Honda Civic LX, which was parked at the curb on Birch Ave when the collision occurred.

We will pay the reasonable cost to repair the vehicle. Riverton Collision Center has provided its estimate dated 02/16/2026 in the amount of $6,940.00, which we have reviewed and agreed. Any supplement must be reported to the undersigned, with photographs, before the additional work is performed. Payment for the repair will be issued to the repair facility on completion. Riverton Towing's reasonable tow and storage charges will be paid directly on receipt of its invoice; please ask your client to authorize the release of the vehicle to the repair facility if he has not already done so.

We will authorize a rental vehicle for your client under separate cover.

This decision applies to the property damage claim only. The bodily injury claim is being handled separately under claim KM-26-440871 by Dana Whitfield, who will contact your office.

Sincerely,

Leah Moran

Re: Rental — end of authorization
Claim number: KM-26-440871-PD · Authorization KR-260218-0412
Owner / claimant: John Doe · 2019 Honda Civic LX
Date of loss: 02/06/2026

Dear Atty. Thone:

This is to remind you that the rental vehicle Keystone Mutual authorized for your client at Rivergate Rentals on 02/18/2026 reaches its 30-day maximum on 03/19/2026. Keystone Mutual's payment of rental charges ends on that date. Please ask your client to return the rental to Rivergate Rentals by the close of business on Thursday, 03/19/2026; any charges after that date are the renter's responsibility.

We have approved Riverton Collision Center's teardown supplement dated 03/02/2026 in the amount of $2,315.00 (A-pillar, structural). We understand from the shop that the repairs are waiting on backordered parts and that a completion date has not yet been set. Payment for the repair will be issued to the repair facility on completion.

Sincerely,

Leah Moran

Re: Request to extend rental — declined
Claim number: KM-26-440871-PD
Owner / claimant: John Doe · 2019 Honda Civic LX
Date of loss: 02/06/2026

Dear Atty. Thone:

We have received your office's request that Keystone Mutual extend or reinstate your client's rental vehicle while the repairs to his 2019 Honda Civic LX are completed.

Keystone Mutual authorized and paid a rental for 30 days, 02/18/2026 through 03/19/2026, at $42.00 per day, a total of $1,260.00 paid to Rivergate Rentals. That period was a reasonable time to repair the vehicle. The continuing delay results from a parts backorder at the repair facility. Shop delay is not covered, and your request is respectfully declined.

Payment for the repair will be issued to Riverton Collision Center on completion, and we will consider any other documented property damage item your office submits on the merits.

Sincerely,

Leah Moran
