Re: Your client: John Doe · Our insured: Robert Smith (policy KMI-PA-7731045)
Claim no.: KM-26-440871-PD (property damage) · Date of loss: February 6, 2026
Vehicle: 2019 Honda Civic LX, VIN 2HGFC2F63KH548213

Dear Mr. Thone:

We have completed our review of your client's remaining property damage items — diminished value and loss of use — including the Riverton Auto Appraisal report dated May 6, 2026. Keystone has already paid the following on this claim:

Paid to date	Date	Amount
Riverton Towing — tow and storage	02/20/2026	$455.00
Rivergate Rentals — rental 02/18/2026–03/19/2026 (30 days)	through 03/26/2026	$1,260.00
Riverton Collision Center — repairs (estimate + supplement)	04/24/2026	$9,255.00
Total paid		$10,970.00

Diminished value. Keystone evaluates diminished value under its standard method. The base loss is capped at 10% of the vehicle's pre-loss actual cash value, then adjusted for the severity of the damage and the vehicle's mileage:

Pre-loss actual cash value	$17,600.00
Base loss of value — 10% cap	$1,760.00
× Damage multiplier (structural damage) — 0.75	$1,320.00
× Mileage multiplier (50,000–59,999 miles; 52,300) — 0.60	$792.00
Diminished value	$792.00

The appraisal of $3,600.00 relies on the asking prices of a handful of retail listings and does not follow our evaluation method. We are unable to accept it.

Loss of use. Keystone provided your client with a rental vehicle for 30 days at $42.00 per day ($1,260.00), the maximum available under our rental guidelines. The later delay was caused by the repair facility's parts backorder, which is outside our insured's control. Loss of use has been satisfied by the rental provided: $0.00.

Our position is final. Keystone offers $792.00 in full settlement of the remaining property damage claim. Enclosed is a release for your client's signature. On receipt of the signed and notarized release, we will issue a check for $792.00 payable to John Doe and LSH Law Group. This offer will remain open for 30 days from the date of this letter.

Sincerely,

Leah Moran
